OLD GUARD "IN DUMPS" OVER BEVERIDGE'S CRUSHING DEFEAT OF STALWART LEADER; NEW NOW SLATED FOR CABINET POSITION

New's Defeat Regarded
As Handwriting On
The Wall For All Re-
actionaries In Turn.

TACTICS CHANGE

Washington, D. C., May 4.—The Senate "Old Guard" mourned today over the passing of one of its stalwarts, Senator Harry S. New, of Indiana. Regret, personal and political over the crushing defeat of Senator New in Tuesday's Senatorial primary in Indiana by former Senator Albert J. Beveridge was mingled with apprehension for other "Old Guard" senators. In Senator New's defeat was seen the handwriting on the wall forecasting trouble for them.

There were hints today that when Senator New retires from the Senate next March he will be given a Cabinet place if he wants it.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4.—Messages of congratulations received by Senator Beveridge from former Bull Moose leaders convinced his followers that if he is successful in defeating Smith Ralston in the November election that his candidacy for President would receive wide-spread support from both parties.

Practically complete figures show Beveridge's majority to be approximately 20,000. The vote with 142 precincts out of 3382 yet to be heard from was Beveridge 187,783, New 168,753.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4.—Beveridge for President in 1924 was the battle cry of the Hoosier Bull Moose today, flushed from the victory of their leader over Harry S. New. Albert J. Beveridge's defeat of the close friend and supporter of President Harding for the United States Senate was the most astounding upset in Indiana's political history.

TWELVE BUILDINGS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Woodbridge, N. J., May 5.—Fire is reported to have followed on explosion in a store here last night destroyed twelve occupied residences and drove dozens of persons from their beds in light clothing. The damage is estimated at $100,000. All occupants of the residences were believed accounted for today. The fire burned with such rapidity that the occupants of the dwellings were unable to save any of their possessions.

Wearing Path To His Door Re- sults In Fall Of Booze Distiller

Some fellow observed somewhere some time that if you made a better mousetrap than the other fellow the people would wear a path to your door. What was true of mousetraps when that observation was made can now be said of present day moonshine.

To illustrate. Some time ago people living in Lawrence township, along the Litz Bridge road and on Hillsdale noted that a whole lot of red-nosed individuals were wearing many paths to the shanty on the Graham farm on the point overlooking Clearfield creek wherein a miner named J. V. Burns employed in the mine on the Graham place had his habit.

So deeply worn was the constantly occupied path, and so queer were the antics or evolutions of the visitors on their return journeys that it was decided by observers that Burns was not dealing in mousetraps. Last evening Sheriff Tom Lowell, Detective R. L. O'Donnell and Chief of

THAT'S NOT THE KIND OF A DOCTOR HE IS

What's in a name? What profit it a man though he gain the heights of fame and is loved, honored and respected in his high station for his sterling qualities and ability in his chosen profession or calling which has made him great and caused him to rise above his fellows that men and women delighted to sit under the spell of his magic tongue and rush to hear him speak when announcement is made that he will appear on occasion anywhere within their reach when with one fell sweep of the pen or the rattle of a typewriter he may be catapulted from the paths he trod to glory into strange fields among strange people and be hailed as one of them? Echo answers, what?

This supposed to be philosophical observation is given as a sort of prelude to an apology we owe the readers of The Progress and Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins, one of Philadelphia's most eminent doctors of divinity, who will deliver the address to the graduating class of the Clearfield Hospital School for Nurses at the Commencement exercises to be held in the Clearfield High School Auditorium on the evening of May 18th.

During the temporary absence of the Religious Editor from his desk yesterday, the article mentioning the fact that Dr. Tompkins had been secured to come to Clearfield after a great deal of effort on the part of President H. B. Powell of the Clearfield Hospital, was referred to the "Horse Editor" for doling up. He "dolled 'er up", too. One fell swoop and Dr. Tompkins was yanked from his pulpit and shot over into the ranks of the "sawbones." He was listed as one of Philadelphia's most famous "medical men." We hope Dr. Tompkins don't find it out.

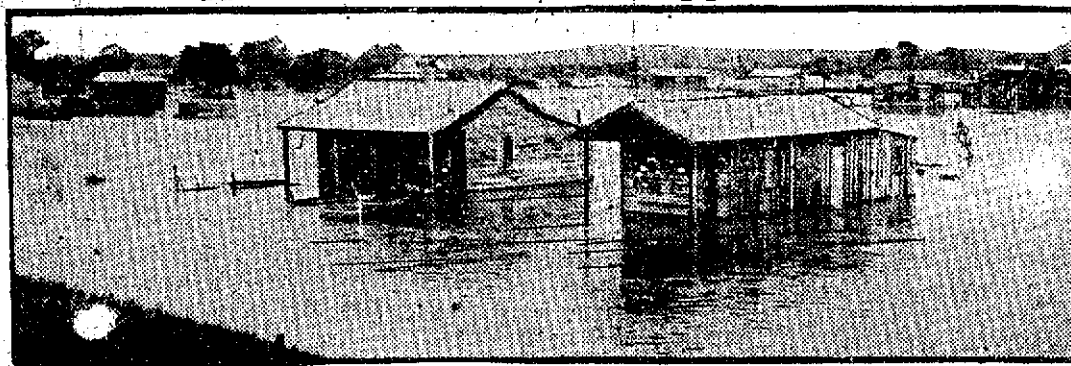

Being the first mistake we ever—acknowledged, we hasten to make correction, even though that characterization had a measure of truth in its bungle. Dr. Tompkins is faithful follower of the great Divine Physician and a noted healer of men's souls. He can amputate a man's conceit, lay bare his short comings and make them visible even to the subject's own eyes and possesses the ability to "take the hide off" the hypocrite and pretender with his keen edged tongue, when the occasion requires and further divorce him from the physical healers who unconsciously listed him with, we just wish to add that he uses no anesthetic on the victim of his verbal surgery.

Mrs. Fred Hinkle of DuBois spent Tuesday with relatives in Clearfield. Miss Jean Harris left today for Reynoldsville to spend some time with her grandparents at that place.

Police Hitt went out to snoop around for investigation purposes. When they quietly neared the shanty about dark they found the door open and saw an illicit still merrily steaming away on an old stove in the middle of the floor. Stepping into the cabin the officers found Burns, Jack Hennessy, Bill Kuhn and Maynard Goss sitting about the still. All hands were placed under arrest, although Hennessy, Kuhn and Goss claimed they were present merely as visitors. A gun was found on Burns and a second one picked up on the bunk, where one of the men tossed it when the officers entered.

A barrel of mash was found "at work" in the shanty and this was upset and destroyed while the still and one quart of finished product on hand was confiscated. The party was brought to the District Attorney's office and later taken before Justice Joseph John where the four men were each held in $500 bail for their appearance at court.

THE PROGRESS A NEWSPAPER—NOT A POLITICAL ORGAN

The Progress several days ago decided on a policy politically which would be in line with the true purposes of a newspaper; giving all sides of the question. We find this policy approved by the great majority who are seeking the truth. True, some of our readers would prefer to see us exclude all propaganda from the camp of the gubernatorial candidate not their choice. This would be unfair, both to the candidates and to our readers, who are of all political faiths. Since coming under my management, The Progress has not been permitted to become the tool of any candidate or faction in primary elections. The Progress did become active in the County Treasurership campaign of a year ago because designing politicians sought to acquire that which death had left unguarded. For this, we have no apology to make. We are proud of it.

In the primary contests this spring every candidate deserves a hearing and the opportunity to be heard. A real newspaper will put the arguments advanced by the gubernatorial candidates and their supporters before the people—then "let the people speak their choice."

G. ALBERT STEWART, Editor.

RED MEN MAKE FINE TRYING TO BRING SHOWING IN PARADE PEACE TO IRISH

The Red Men of Clearfield and Curwensville made Clearfield people sit up and take notice Tuesday evening when they paraded the main streets of the town enroute on their way to the wigwag of Chincagoose Tribe in the Mechanics Building. The American Legion band headed the parade.

When the wigwag was reached and council fire was lighted, the largest crowd of Indians assembled in many moons was present. Great excitement was created by the announcement of the scouts that a party of ten palefaces had been captured in the forest. At demand of the Sachem as to the disposition of the captives, after much "walla walla" it was decided to give them a chance for their lives by adopting them into the tribe.

The Degree Team of Illini Tribe of Curwensville especially invited for the occasion was delegated the task of "taking over" the palefaces and they did so to the Queen's taste, nothing being left undone.

It was a great night for the Indians and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

FINAL SESSION OF PLAY INSTITUTE

The sixth and final session of the Play Institute which Miss Frances H. Haire is conducting for Clearfield Community Service will be held in the High School Gymnasium at 7:30 this evening, Thursday. The large and regular attendance at this course has shown the enjoyment secured as well as the interest in the training which makes it possible for those taking the course to become game leaders on their own account. It is because the latter is the primary object of the course that only adults are desired in attendance. The children are having these games in the schools and they will be continued on the playgrounds this summer.

Dublin, May 3.—On the motion of Eamonn De Valera the Dail Eireann late today adopted a motion ordering the opposing sides in the Irish Republican army conflict to cease firing and arrange a truce.

Mr. De Valera said he would like to see the army executives who had taken an independent position issue a similar order and would do all he could to that end.

Richard Mulcahy said his side had done all possible and Arthur Griffith declared their men were only defending themselves.

Griffith pressed DeValera for a definite assurance and the latter said couriers would be sent to establish an immediate truce. Griffith urged that DeValera should speak at the four courts in Dublin, the headquarters of the different army sections.

Richard Mulcahy seconded De Valera's motion for the order to cease firing, and to arrange a truce. After its adoption the house at 6:45 adjourned until Friday.

Dublin, Ireland, May 4.—A military conference between Free State and mutineer army officers this afternoon declared a truce over all South Ireland to last until 4:00 P. M., Monday May 8th.

Belfast, Ireland, May 4.—Border warfare between Ulster constabulary and insurgent troops flared up to day on the heels of the announcement from Dublin that the rebels agreed to a truce with the Free State. Sniping started again this morning and one constable was killed and a number of others wounded.

BIG CIRCUS IS HERE; CROWDS BRAVE BAD WEATHER TO SEE IT

Hagenbeck-Wallace
Shows Arrive From Du-Bois In Good Time
This Morning.

PARADE WAS FINE

Circus day is here. The day the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus give their wonderful exhibitions, which delight the wee child to the more mature and it is a joy to see both grownups and youngsters take possession of the monster tents of this national institution, for the circus has become indispensable and is a sane and healthy form of pleasure that has a very normalizing influence in the complex life of the moment.

Circus day always brings its attendant thrills its street parade, pink lemonade, peanuts, balloons, side shows and jam and push, the throngs of thousands of circus fans, and music of the bands, music full of life and lit and pep and punch, music that quickens the pulse and stirs the blood.

Under the vast spread of canvas known as the menagerie and covering a city block are strange wild animals and reptiles from every clime, a herd of elephants and camels, a huddled monkeys in a mimic hotel, sacred cattle, leopards, tigers, lions, gnus, deer, panthers and other animals make this the best and largest collection of animals ever exhibited by a circus, however pretentious it may be.

Ingenuity and variety distinguish the circus program. There are wonderful trained wild animal acts upon which primarily the fame of the show was founded, beautiful equestrianism in swagger raiment make an effective orature and adds just a whiff of that je ne sais quoi that denotes individuality; wonderful acrobatic groups tumble in the different arenas like a cascade, it is hard to catch the breath in trying to get their details. Numerous aerial stars keep the lofty canvas dome alive with activity and there are corps of fun making clowns galore, whose sole mission is to entertain.

Doors for the afternoon performance open at 1 o'clock and at night at 7 o'clock, the show will start one hour later.

BEVERIDGE WINS NOMINATION FOR SENATE OVER NEW

Fierce Battle Of Ballots
Results In Downfall Of Administration Leader In Indiana.

DEMOCRATS GRIN

Indianapolis, May 4.—Senator New last night conceded the nomination of U. S. Senate to Senator Beveridge in a statement to the United Press Senator New said:

"There is no doubt that Mr. Beveridge has been nominated for the senatorship. I do now, as I always have done, take off my hat to the winner."

The Republican Senate committee through its chairman, Senator McCormick, of Illinois, said late yesterday in a statement that "Albert J. Beveridge has served 12 years in the Senate of the United States with real distinction and will return to resume that service."

The committee added that it would support energetically the nominee of the party selected in Indiana primaries.

Some Claim
Washington, May 3.—Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared in a statement tonight that "The victory of Albert J. Beveridge over Senator Harry New in the Indiana senatorial primaries by a decisive majority is a plain and emphatic repudiation of the Harding administration and of Senator New by the Republicans of Indiana."

Hard Man To Please Got Ford; Wants Key

John Duffon found his Ford. The thief who stole it ditched the machine and left it on Merrill street, where it was located yesterday morning.

The car stealer was a careful Jaseo, in fact much more careful in this particular instance than the Ford owner. When John allowed Henry to sit by the side of the road and let the rest of the world go by he left the key sticking in the lock. Not so the kidnapper of the Henry. When he deserted the machine in the Merrill street ditch he carefully locked the car and removed the key.

There's the rub. John has his Henry but as the darn thing is locked it is no use to him. He had the animal towed to its own home where it sits rusting its young life away because the lock is a Yale lock and John can't get a key to fit it.

Will the Henry hooker return good for evil by mailing the key to the despoiled car owner without further delay.

Mrs. Howard Stewart entertained last evening in Jordan's Hotel at dinner. Covers were laid for nine.

Methodist Sunday School Work- ers To Hold County Conference

The Second Annual Series of Conferences for Workers with Children in the Sunday Schools, Junior Leagues and Vacation Bible Schools, etc., under the auspices of the Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal church for the district which embraces all the Methodist churches of Clearfield county and the church at Glen Campbell, Indiana County will be held at the West Side Methodist church on Friday May 5th 1922.

This is a very important conference and all workers are urged to be present, especially as it is the desire of Supervisor E. C. Keboch, who is largely responsible for this district leading all the conferences of the United States in Sunday School work. He wants to have a picture of the workers for use in a publication which will be issued later from Chicago.

We may expect here the team composed of Miss Mina Clarke, of the Board of Sunday Schools, Miss Mary

BURGLARS WILL SERVE TWO YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Bill Davis And Frank
Chatham Enter Pleas
Of Guilty And Are
Sent "Down River."

JAIL NOW JAMMED

Bill Davis, alias Bill Blue, the colored individual who broke into and robbed the Boston Store of 1 Kanter and Sons at Curwensville last December and who was recently arraigned in Haverstraw, New York, and brought back to Clearfield by Sheriff Tom Lowell, appeared before Judge Bell yesterday morning and after entering a plea of guilty to a charge of breaking and entering and burglary was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, the costs of prosecution and serve not more than five nor less than two years in the penitentiary.

Davis said he did the job alone, being no confederates as had been suspected. He said he was in the store for more than two hours fitting himself out in "glad rags."

Frank Chatham, the Williamsport young man who was captured by special officer Eppers in his attempted robbery of the Workman's Third Street Grocery, also entered a plea of guilty to breaking and entering, etc. and as a diary the lad kept showed he had been all over the country he was put down as a petty crook and given sentenced to pay $100 fine and costs and not more than five years nor less than two years in the penitentiary.

Sheriff Lowell will have both men taken to the penitentiary today in order to make room at the jail as last night the jail population totaled 39 odd, every bunk in the house being full.

PUBLIC SERVICE HEARING TODAY

Judge John W. Reed conducted a Public Service Commission hearing in the Arbitration room of the Court House this morning. The complaint heard was that of the Supervisors of Sandy township against the DuBois United Traction Company.

The Sandy township people are seeking to force the street railway people to move their tracks from the centre to the side of the road or street they traverse in the township in order that the road may be properly improved. In the event that the track is not moved then the people of Sandy ask that the trolley company be made to pave between the rails.

Considerable testimony was taken and a decision will be made after this testimony has been reviewed by the Public Service Commission.

Mrs. Rafferty of Grampian spent Tuesday in Clearfield with friends.

Rosengrants, of the Board of Epworth League, the District Superintendent E. C. Keboch. Local workers will also participate in some of the discussions.

During the afternoon session, the speakers will present the general scope of their work, and the rest of the time will be devoted to conferences. The purpose is to talk to all the workers at close range and assist them in developing model Sunday Schools and Junior Leagues in their local churches.

There will be no registration fee. An offering will be received. No entertainment for the delegates will be provided.

HURDY GURDY FINANCE

"Won't be in the road at all, will I, Mr. Ames?" pleaded Matzie. He laughed at her. Her childish ingenuousness was refreshing. "Not a particle," he gaily assured her. "How would you like to run the merry-go-round, all by yourself?" "O-o-o-h," and her voice died away in a delightful cog.

"We'll start the engine for you," promised Ames, and John Wilks ran to make himself useful.

"I'm afraid Matzie's spoiled, Mr. Ames," boasted her father, viewing her fondly, as she dashed over to the absurd 'tittle engine. "How's the lake coming on?"

"Splendidly," answered Ames, leading the way over past the remains of the one-time switch-back. "The bridges for the canal are almost ready to set up, and I think that, by another week, we shall be able to turn the water on."

Houston, with a growing pride in the transformation they were effecting, walked all around the grounds and smiled, with the return of child hood, as he inspected the gaudy "trains" which rose on every hand.

"I saw the chief of police last night," he chuckled. "I won him over, at last."

They were passing the merry-go-round, when Houston reported this interesting fact. The little engine was hissing, and its shrill whistle was piping, while Matzie Houston stood proudly at the lever. The merry-go-round was whirling at top speed, and Joe Wilks sat astride the horse with the green tail.

"Oh, Mr. Ames! Oh, daddy!" cried Matzie, in her limpid voice, and stopped the engine with a jerk. "No, Joe; you mustn't climb down yet. Mr. Ames and daddy, pick out your horses. Take the outside ones where I can see you, and don't sit close together."

"Mr. Ames is busy," protested her father.

"Oh, no he isn't; are you, Mr. Ames?" and her eyes had the softness of a summer evening sky.

"I've been wanting to ride that pink striped horse ever since I've been here," solemnly declared Ames, rather shocked with himself, and swung his long legs astride the wooden beast in question. "Come on, Houston! Take that intelligent mule with the black legs."

"Teet! Teet! Teet!" shrilled the screechy little whistle, and they were off, tumbling slowly and smoothly over at furious speed, their stopping abruptly, and looking toward again until John Ames, who had frequently crossed in stormy weather, recognized a certain familiar mountain in his mouth, and felt that he began to look green.

"Oh, I've had a lovely time!" announced Matzie, in raptures. "I'm coming out often, may I?" and she took her round, blue eyes with her.

Chapter V.

There came another day. For the first time in a week, Marie Houston, who had been general nuisance and obstruction did not come. John Ames, superintending the construction of absurdly childish things to the amusement of townsmen, missed the youngster seriously. She had been on every dangerous scaffolding in the park; she had directed Joe Wilks and her father and had through every uncomfortable experience which an active and ingenious mind could devise; she had brought back to John Ames the spirit of childhood itself, and now, that the day were on, and she did not come, he found himself more lonely than he could have imagined.

"Where's Matzie?" complained Tee Wilks, watching carpenter nail on the eye of a gaudy dragon. "The place looks like a rampy day without her."

"Yes, don't it?" agreed John. "She's a most charming child."

"Child?" objected Tee. "She's a child? She was introduced into society last winter. She'll probably be married this year."

"That was true! She was eighteen! She was, after all, a woman! John Ames went about his work with a smile. They were painting green arches, and yellow unicorns, and red devils all around the park, but John Ames saw nothing but blue!

"Hello John!" called a soft little voice.

SOLDIERS' BONUS IS NOW UP TO HARDING

Washington, D. C., May 4.—The soldier bonus bill was again put up to President Harding today. Republican on the finance committee authorized Senator McCumber to submit the committee's latest draft of the bill to the President in the hope of receiving a decision as to whether he will veto the "payked" measure. Senator McCumber will see the President as soon as possible.

MRS. ELIZA WISE

Mrs. Eliza Wise died at the DuBois Hospital, on Wednesday, April 28th at the age of seventy-six years. She had suffered a paralytic stroke about two weeks ago and being at an advanced age, grew steadily worse until the end came at the above stated time. Mrs. Wise was born in the city of Berlin, Germany, and came to America with her parents when a small child. Her early married life was spent in Reed City, Michigan, but for the past twenty years had resided in DuBois, Pa.

She was the mother of twelve children, three of whom are living: viz: Lewis E. of Clearfield, John G. of Kaufmans and Bertha M. Moore at home.

She is also survived by sixteen grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the home of the late Mrs. Wise, Friday at 1:30 o'clock, with Rev. W. O. Callahan of the Mt. Zion church officiating. Interment was made in the Rumberger Cemetery, by the side of her eldest daughter, Mrs. Minnie Smith.

The out of town people who attended the funeral were Mrs. Geo. Smith, Mr. Clyde Smith and Mrs. Pearl Tuff of Endeavor, Pa.; John G. Wise of Kaufmans, Mrs. Ray Wise and daughter, Betty, of Clearfield and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Leshe J. Wise, also of Clearfield.

BAD STOMACH AND HEART PAINS

Get First Relief In Months From Nerv-Worth

When the stomach is sour and the food ferments it produces a poisonous gas that distends the abdomen and presses against the heart causing severe pains and often dangerous palpitation. We have yet to hear of a single case of indigestion or bowel trouble that was not immediately relieved by use of the famous Nerv-Worth.

A. Jacobs of Chattanooga, Tenn., tells us that he suffered this way for years—could not get a good night's rest but before he had taken his first bottle entirely up he was greatly relieved and a little later became entirely free from the pain of indigestion and stomach trouble. His bowels were perfectly regular and all his sleeplessness and nervousness gone. He could eat whatever he wished without pain or discomfort and felt like a new man. Most druggists sell Nerv-Worth at $1.00 a bottle and all are authorized to give the money back if you do not receive satisfactory encouragement from the first bottle. It is always on sale at the Stewart Drug Store in this city. It is especially fine for delicate women and sickly children as the taste is pleasant and the action mild but very effective.

Paris, France, May 3.—Jacques Bretmon, most famous of Parisian beauty experts, today gave his version of the tremendous power over men wielded by Peggy Hopkins Joyce. He said "Peggy's attractions are physical. Her admirers are emboldened, knowing that they are playing with fire, each trying to outdo his predecessor to win her love. I do not find Peggy classically beautiful, at least not according to the standards of Venus de Milo. She was ill-proportioned as I viewed her."

After I had my baby, I was all run down and so nervous I kept me from gaining. My doctor did everything he could to build me up, then he ordered me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with his medicine and I am now a new woman. I have had three children and they are all Lydia E. Pinkham babies. I have recommended your medicine to several friends and they speak highly of it. You are certainly doing good work in this world."

—Mrs. ADRIAN TOMSHECK, 10557 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

There is nothing very strange about the doctor directing Mrs. Tomscheck to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There are many physicians who do recommend it and highly appreciate its value.

Women who are nervous, run down, and suffering from women's ailments should give this well-known root and herb medicine a trial. Mrs. Tomscheck's experience should guide you towards health.

Talk to a SPECIAL-SIX owner and note his enthusiasm. Examine the car and you will see the reason. The SPECIAL-SIX possesses the qualities that make up true motor car value.

There is power: a Studebaker-built L-head motor of 50 horsepower and wonderful flexibility.

There is economy: it has a reputation of staying out of the repair shop, as well as low cost of operation. At $1475 f. o. b. factory, the SPECIAL-SIX is unapproached in value by any car of comparable quality.

There is comfort: genuine leather upholstered cushions, nine inches deep, and long semi-elliptic springs, front and rear. Leg room, without cramping, for five passengers.

There is beauty: a Studebaker-built body of harmonious lines and lustrous finish.

There are refinements: jeweled eight-day clock; one-piece, rain-proof windshield with windshield wiper; tonneau light with extension cord; transmission lock which reduces theft insurance rate to the owner 15 to 20 per cent; one key operates the theft-proof lock on transmission, ignition switch and tool compartment in left front door.

And there is Studebaker's reputation for fair dealing and seventy years' experience in building vehicles of honest quality.

Touring, $1475; 2-Passenger Roadster, $1425; 4-Passenger Roadster, $1475; 4-Passenger Coupe, $2150; Sedan, $2250. All prices f. o. b. factory.

STATE MILITIA TO FIGHT FOREST FIRE

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 3.—Forest fires in this region have become so menacing that the State Forestry Department today ordered 200 men from Wilkesbarre, Pittston and Nanticoke batteries of the 109th Field Artillery to report to Tobyhanna to aid in fighting a fire that has been raging there since Sunday. The fire which is the most serious in twenty years has already destroyed twenty square miles of timber land. It is burning towards the towns of New-land and Crisco.

THINGS LOOK SHAKY AT GENOA CONFLAB

Genoa, Italy, May 4.—The Genoa Conference tottered on the verge of complete collapse today. Lloyd George, through hasty conferences, struggled to avert the crash. The French and Belgians threatened to bring the whole structure of the conference to the ground.

Clearfield Soloist To Sing For Westinghouse Broadcasting Radio

BABE RUTH FACED SURGEON TODAY

New York, N. Y., May 4.—"Babe" Ruth, star king of baseball, hit safely today the first time he faced a surgeon's delivery. The Babe was operated on in St. Vincent's hospital today for tonsillitis and this bulletin was issued: "He is doing fine as was expected. The operation was successful."

TO MAINTAIN SMALL ARMY ON THE RHINE

Washington, D. C., May 4.—Orders have been issued by the War Department delaying the sailing of a part of the American troops on the Rhine until June 17th. It was learned today this action has been taken in response to the Allies and Germany's representation that a contingent of the American troops be retained in Germany for a while. The troops comprise two battalions of the Eighth Infantry, which with their auxiliaries will aggregate 1000 officers and men.

DAMAGE DONE BY FLOODS MOUNTS INTO MILLIONS

Natchez, Miss., May 3.—Property damage of more than $12,000,000, 50,000 persons homeless and nearly 6,000 square miles of fertile land inundated is the toll thus far taken by the flood waters of the raging Mississippi and its tributaries, according to figures compiled here today by N. R. Cotton, Levee Commissioner.

NEW MEMBERS GIVEN FINE RECEPTION

The annual reception to new members which was held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening was the most successful social gathering in the recent history of that progressive congregation.

The new members taken into the church during the past twelve months numbered fifty-four. Class No. 4 acted as a Reception Committee while all the officers of the church with their wives were in the receiving line. Each new member as he or she entered, was presented with a carnation which was worn as a distinguishing badge during the evening.

The reception was held in the main church after which the assemblage gathered in the chapel where a highly pleasing program was given, which included a solo by Miss Margery Betts, "The Rosary," duet by Mrs. Clara Howard Brown and Miss Jean Harris; Violin solo by Miss Gene Mitchell and readings by Miss Ethel Trostle.

The Sunday School orchestra furnished the music for the occasion and dainty refreshments were served as an end to a perfect day.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach trouble. Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c

AWNING TIME IS HERE NOW

The time to have your awnings hung is before you need them. Then you are ready for the hot days as soon as they come. And they're coming quickly.

Now, I can hang your awnings better than I can later on when everyone wants theirs as soon as they can have them. So let's get together and plan on your job.

I have some very pretty coverings and the patterns are those which will add a lot to the appearance of your home.

MILK IS THE FOOD IDEAL

There is no other food that will take the place of milk in your menu. Milk is the ONLY food that contains ALL the elements that are needed for the proper nourishment of your body.

Folks who are drinking milk every day find that they are doing their day's work easier and that they are feeling better at the end of the day.

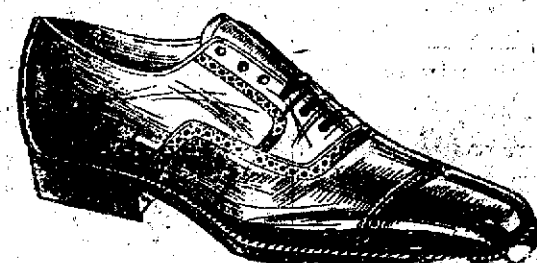

Kiddies are thriving on milk and that's the solution for so many husky kiddies in and around Clearfield—they are drinking our milk.

CURWENSVILLE

In a contribution from "Special" on Monday evening reference was made to the "Go to Sunday School" movement. In reference to this article your correspondent received the following letter which we publish by permission.

May 2, 1922, Curwensville, Pa.
Mrs. J. L. Curtin,
My dear Mrs. Curtin:
In the Curwensville letter to the Progress of yesterday an error occurs that may tend to create misunderstanding of the Go-to-Sunday School Movement that has been launched by this Association for the month of May. It is an interdenominational enterprise in which all the evangelical Sunday Schools are requested to co-operate. There are 226 protestant Sunday Schools in the county, representing at least 23 different denominations. The executive committee which is back of this movement consists of 28 persons, drawn from the different denominational schools by elections in district and county conventions. To permit the impressions to prevail that the Go-to-Sunday School Movement is sponsored only by the Methodists is detrimental to its success and I trust that adequate correction of the item referred to will be made.

Very sincerely

S. C. WATTS

It has been the policy of the Progress to correct errors whenever possible, and following this policy we make this correction as requested. We are very sorry for an misapprehension but disclaim any responsibility for items labeled "Special." How ever we will be glad to correct if possible any mistakes which may occur through misinformation.

Furthermore, we most heartily endorse the movement, realizing that from the Sunday School of today must come the church of tomorrow and if we fail in its support, the church of the future must go by default.

JAVA DANCER IN FOLLIES

Dancing as it is done in far-off Java is shown by Japonette the feature dancer with "The Greenwich Village Follies" which will be seen at the Driggs Theatre Monday night. The costume worn by Miss Japonette in the Java numbers an exact replica of the one worn by the Japanese palace dancers. No less person than Minister Cramer from the Netherlands to the United States and a former Governor of Java has declared the dance letter perfect, after seeing Miss Japonette render it in New York last winter.

A pleasure trip to the Orient brought her to Java where she saw the Palace Dance on Broadway for that it would go well on the American stage.

That it has "gone over" is shown by the fact that she has been doing the Palace Dance on Broadway for four seasons and this is the first time in that number of years that she has left the Rialto. Miss Japonette also danced the Tong Sarg Marionette number.

Miss Japonette looks all the world like a marionette. Even the lifelike strings that give life to the original marionette are found on Japonette and as she dances from one side of the stage to the other the dancette travel with her. It is a most realistic dance so realistic in fact, that if the program did not say that Japonette was a dancer, one would actually believe that Tony Sarg himself was sitting up in the flies operating the strings.

Putting Asunder.
The late Lord Halsbury was on one occasion addressing a gathering of legal conferees. The subject was "Matrimonial Law," and much laughter resulted when he reminded his hearers that Sydney Smith once wrote that "frequently it is that those persons whom God hath joined together in matrimony, ill-cooked joints and badly boiled potatoes have put asunder."

The Gentle Hunter.
"Personally, you know, I am very fond of hunting. But, then, you see, I belong to the society for the protection of animals. However, I found a way out of my difficulty. Whenever I go hunting I use blank cartridges."—La Balomette.

Turks Strangle Criminals.
In Turkey strangling and sewing a criminal up in a bag and throwing him into the sea are common modes of punishment.

George and John Trumble, representative Morris township citizens, were Clearfield visitors last evening. Mrs. L. C. Meise, of South Fourth street, is attending the State P. O. of A. convention at Pottsville, as the representative of Clearfield lodge.

Biggest April-- Biggest Single Day-- Lowest Prices--

In Franklin History

During April, 1922, more cars were sold by the Franklin Automobile Company than in any previous April in its 20-year history.

Following close upon this record, a new high mark for a single day's business was established Monday, May 1, when more new cars were put in the hands of owners by Franklin dealers throughout the country than during any previous one day. This is three times our previous record.

Franklin prices today are at the lowest level they have touched in 16 years, with the exception of a 4-month period in 1916.

OLD GUARD "IN DUMPS" OVER BEVERIDGE'S CRUSHING DEFEAT OF STALWART LEADER; NEW NOW SLATED FOR CABINET POSITION

New's Defeat Regarded
As Handwriting On
The Wall For All Re-
actionaries In Turn.

TACTICS CHANGE

Washington, D. C., May 4.—The Senate "Old Guard" mourned today over the passing of one of its stalwarts, Senator Harry S. New, of Indiana. Regret, personal and political over the crushing defeat of Senator New in Tuesday's Senatorial primary in Indiana by former Senator Albert J. Beveridge was mingled with apprehension for other "Old Guard" senators. In Senator New's defeat was seen the handwriting on the wall forecasting trouble for them.

There were hints today that when Senator New retires from the Senate next March he will be given a Cabinet place if he wants it.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4.—Messages of congratulations received by Senator Beveridge from former Bull Moose leaders convinced his followers that if he is successful in defeating Smith Ralston in the November election that his candidacy for President would receive wide-spread support from both parties.

Practically complete figures show Beveridge's majority to be approximately 20,000. The vote with 142 precincts out of 3382 yet to be heard from was Beveridge 187,783, New 168,753.

Indianapolis, Ind., May 4.—Beveridge for President in 1924 was the battle cry of the Hoosier Bull Moose today, flushed from the victory of their leader over Harry S. New. Albert J. Beveridge's defeat of the close friend and supporter of President Harding for the United States Senate was the most astounding upset in Indiana's political history.

TWELVE BUILDINGS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Woodbridge, N. J., May 5.—Fire is reported to have followed on explosion in a store here last night destroyed twelve occupied residences and drove dozens of persons from their beds in light clothing. The damage is estimated at $100,000. All occupants of the residences were believed accounted for today. The fire burned with such rapidity that the occupants of the dwellings were unable to save any of their possessions.

Wearing Path To His Door Re- sults In Fall Of Booze Distiller

Some fellow observed somewhere some time that if you made a better mousetrap than the other fellow the people would wear a path to your door. What was true of mousetraps when that observation was made can now be said of present day moonshine.

To illustrate. Some time ago people living in Lawrence township, along the Litz Bridge road and on Hillsdale noted that a whole lot of red-nosed individuals were wearing many paths to the shanty on the Graham farm on the point overlooking Clearfield creek wherein a miner named J. V. Burns employed in the mine on the Graham place had his habit.

So deeply worn was the constantly occupied path, and so queer were the antics or evolutions of the visitors on their return journeys that it was decided by observers that Burns was not dealing in mousetraps. Last evening Sheriff Tom Lowell, Detective R. L. O'Donnell and Chief of

What's in a name? What profit it a man though he gain the heights of fame and is loved, honored and respected in his high station for his sterling qualities and ability in his chosen profession or calling which has made him great and caused him to rise above his fellows that men and women delighted to sit under the spell of his magic tongue and rush to hear him speak when announcement is made that he will appear on occasion anywhere within their reach when with one fell sweep of the pen or the rattle of a typewriter he may be catapulted from the paths he trod to glory into strange fields among strange people and be hailed as one of them? Echo answers, what?

This supposed to be philosophical observation is given as a sort of prelude to an apology we owe the readers of The Progress and Rev. Dr. Floyd W. Tompkins, one of Philadelphia's most eminent doctors of divinity, who will deliver the address to the graduating class of the Clearfield Hospital School for Nurses at the Commencement exercises to be held in the Clearfield High School Auditorium on the evening of May 18th.

During the temporary absence of the Religious Editor from his desk yesterday, the article mentioning the fact that Dr. Tompkins had been secured to come to Clearfield after a great deal of effort on the part of President H. B. Powell of the Clearfield Hospital, was referred to the "Horse Editor" for doling up. He "dolled 'er up", too. One fell swoop and Dr. Tompkins was yanked from his pulpit and shot over into the ranks of the "sawbones." He was listed as one of Philadelphia's most famous "medical men." We hope Dr. Tompkins don't find it out.

Being the first mistake we ever—acknowledged, we hasten to make correction, even though that characterization had a measure of truth in its bungle. Dr. Tompkins is faithful follower of the great Divine Physician and a noted healer of men's souls. He can amputate a man's conceit, lay bare his short comings and make them visible even to the subject's own eyes and possesses the ability to "take the hide off" the hypocrite and pretender with his keen edged tongue, when the occasion requires and further divorce him from the physical healers who unconsciously listed him with, we just wish to add that he uses no anesthetic on the victim of his verbal surgery.

Mrs. Fred Hinkle of DuBois spent Tuesday with relatives in Clearfield. Miss Jean Harris left today for Reynoldsville to spend some time with her grandparents at that place.

Police Hitt went out to snoop around for investigation purposes. When they quietly neared the shanty about dark they found the door open and saw an illicit still merrily steaming away on an old stove in the middle of the floor. Stepping into the cabin the officers found Burns, Jack Hennessy, Bill Kuhn and Maynard Goss sitting about the still. All hands were placed under arrest, although Hennessy, Kuhn and Goss claimed they were present merely as visitors. A gun was found on Burns and a second one picked up on the bunk, where one of the men tossed it when the officers entered.

A barrel of mash was found "at work" in the shanty and this was upset and destroyed while the still and one quart of finished product on hand was confiscated. The party was brought to the District Attorney's office and later taken before Justice Joseph John where the four men were each held in $500 bail for their appearance at court.

THE PROGRESS A NEWSPAPER—NOT A POLITICAL ORGAN

The Progress several days ago decided on a policy politically which would be in line with the true purposes of a newspaper; giving all sides of the question. We find this policy approved by the great majority who are seeking the truth. True, some of our readers would prefer to see us exclude all propaganda from the camp of the gubernatorial candidate not their choice. This would be unfair, both to the candidates and to our readers, who are of all political faiths. Since coming under my management, The Progress has not been permitted to become the tool of any candidate or faction in primary elections. The Progress did become active in the County Treasurership campaign of a year ago because designing politicians sought to acquire that which death had left unguarded. For this, we have no apology to make. We are proud of it.

In the primary contests this spring every candidate deserves a hearing and the opportunity to be heard. A real newspaper will put the arguments advanced by the gubernatorial candidates and their supporters before the people—then "let the people speak their choice."

RED MEN MAKE FINE TRYING TO BRING SHOWING IN PARADE PEACE TO IRISH

The Red Men of Clearfield and Curwensville made Clearfield people sit up and take notice Tuesday evening when they paraded the main streets of the town enroute on their way to the wigwam of Chincacameose Tribe in the Mechanics Building. The American Legion band headed the parade.

When the wigwam was reached and council fire was lighted, the largest crowd of Indians assembled in many moons was present. Great excitement was created by the announcement of the scouts that a party of ten palefaces had been captured in the forest. At demand of the Sachem as to the disposition of the captives, after much "walla walla" it was decided to give them a chance for their lives by adopting them into the tribe. The Degree Team of Illini Tribe of Curwensville especially invited for the occasion was delegated the task of "taking over" the palefaces and they did so to the Queen's taste, nothing being left undone.

It was a great night for the Indians and was thoroughly enjoyed by all present.

FINAL SESSION OF PLAY INSTITUTE

The sixth and final session of the Play Institute which Miss Frances H. Haire is conducting for Clearfield Community Service will be held in the High School Gymnasium at 7:30 this evening, Thursday. The large and regular attendance at this course has shown the enjoyment secured as well as the interest in the training which makes it possible for those taking the course to become game leaders on their own account. It is because the latter is the primary object of the course that only adults are desired in attendance. The children are having these games in the schools and they will be continued on the playgrounds this summer.

LOCAL GIRL MAKING GOOD

Miss Ona Daughman, instructress in the Commercial Department of the Roaring Springs High School, a Clearfield High School graduate, is making a fine record and was the subject of highly favorable comment on her work in an article which appeared recently in the Altoona Mirror.

BIG CIRCUS IS HERE; CROWDS BRAVE BAD WEATHER TO SEE IT

Hagenbeck-Wallace Shows Arrive From DuBois In Good Time This Morning.

PARADE WAS FINE

Circus day is here. The day the Hagenbeck-Wallace Circus give their wonderful exhibitions, which delight the wee child to the more mature and it is a joy to see both grownups and youngsters take possession of the monster tents of this national institution, for the circus has become indispensable and is a sane and healthy form of pleasure that has a very normalizing influence in the complex life of the moment.

Circus day always brings its attendant thrills its street parade, pink lemonade, peanuts, balloons, side shows and jam and push, the throngs of thousands of circus fans, and music of the bands, music full of life and lit and pep and punch, music that quickens the pulse and stirs the blood.

Under the vast spread of canvas known as the menagerie and covering a city block are strange wild animals and reptiles from every clime, a herd of elephants and camels, a hundred monkeys in a mimic hotel, sacred cattle, leopards, tigers, lions, gnus, deer, panthers and other animals make this the best and largest collection of animals ever exhibited by a circus, however pretentious it may be.

Ingenuity and variety distinguish the circus program. There are wonderful trained wild animal acts upon which primarily the fame of the show was founded, beautiful equestrianism in swaggaro raiment make an effective orature and adds just a whiff of that je ne sais quoi that denotes individuality; wonderful acrobatic groups tumble in the different arenas like a cascade, it is hard to catch the breath in trying to get their details. Numerous aerial stars keep the lofty canvas dome alive with activity and there are corps of fun making clowns galore, whose sole mission is to entertain.

Doors for the afternoon performance open at 1 o'clock and at night at 7 o'clock, the show will start one hour later.

NARROW ESCAPE FROM FIRE

Tarentum, Pa., May 4.—Five members of the family of Charles Trüber jumped from the second story window of their home here early today as fire starting in the basement swept through the frame structure and destroyed it in twenty minutes.

Ed Lynch of this city is attending a convention of railroad clerks in Dallas, Texas.

BEVERIDGE WINS NOMINATION FOR SENATE OVER NEW

Fierce Battle Of Ballots
Results In Downfall Of
Administration Leader In Indiana.

DEMOCRATS GRIN

Indianapolis, May 4.—Senator New last night conceded the nomination of U. S. Senate to Senator Beveridge in a statement to the United Press Senator New said:

"There is no doubt that Mr. Beveridge has been nominated for the senatorship. I do now, as I always have done, take off my hat to the winner." The Republican Senate committee through its chairman, Senator McCormick, of Illinois, said late yesterday in a statement that "Albert J. Beveridge has served 12 years in the Senate of the United States with real distinction and will return to resume that service."

The committee added that it would support energetically the nominee of the party selected in Indiana primaries.

Some Claim
Washington, May 3.—Cordell Hull, chairman of the Democratic national committee, declared in a statement tonight that "The victory of Albert J. Beveridge over Senator Harry New in the Indiana senatorial primaries by a decisive majority is a plain and emphatic repudiation of the Harding administration and of Senator New by the Republicans of Indiana."

Hard Man To Please Got Ford; Wants Key

John Duffon found his Ford. The thief who stole it ditched the machine and left it on Merrill street, where it was located yesterday morning.

The car stealer was a careful Jaseo, in fact much more careful in this particular instance than the Ford owner. When John allowed Henry to sit by the side of the road and let the rest of the world go by he left the key sticking in the lock. Not so the kidnapper of the Henry. When he deserted the machine in the Merrill street ditch he carefully locked the car and removed the key.

There's the rub. John has his Henry but as the darn thing is locked it is no use to him. He had the animal towed to its own home where it rusts its young life away because the lock is a Yale lock and John can't get a key to fit it.

Will the Henry hooker return good for evil by mailing the key to the despoiled car owner without further delay.

Mrs. Howard Stewart entertained last evening in Jordan's Hotel at dinner. Covers were laid for nine.

Methodist Sunday School Work- ers To Hold County Conference

The Second Annual Series of Conferences for Workers with Children in the Sunday Schools, Junior Leagues and Vacation Bible Schools, etc., under the auspices of the Board of Sunday Schools of the Methodist Episcopal church for the district which embraces all the Methodist churches of Clearfield county and the church at Glen Campbell, Indiana County will be held at the West Side Methodist church on Friday May 5th 1922.

This is a very important conference and all workers are urged to be present, especially as it is the desire of Supervisor E. C. Keboch, who is largely responsible for this district leading all the conferences of the United States in Sunday School work. He wants to have a picture of the workers for use in a publication which will be issued later from Chicago.

We may expect here the team composed of Miss Mina Clarke, of the Board of Sunday Schools, Miss Mary

BURGLARS WILL SERVE TWO YEARS IN PENITENTIARY

Bill Davis And Frank
Chatham Enter Pleas
Of Guilty And Are
Sent "Down River."

JAIL NOW JAMMED

Bill Davis, alias Bill Blue, the colored individual who broke into and robbed the Boston Store of 1 Kanter and Sons at Curwensville last December and who was recently arraigned in Haverstraw, New York, and brought back to Clearfield by Sheriff Tom Lowell, appeared before Judge Bell yesterday morning and after entering a plea of guilty to a charge of breaking and entering and burglary was sentenced to pay a fine of $100, the costs of prosecution and serve not more than five nor less than two years in the penitentiary.

Davis said he did the job alone, being no confederates as had been suspected. He said he was in the store for more than two hours fitting himself out in "glad rags."

Frank Chatham, the Williamsport young man who was captured by special officer Eppers in his attempted robbery of the Workman's Third Street Grocery, also entered a plea of guilty to breaking and entering, etc. and as a diary the lad kept showed he had been all over the country he was put down as a petty crook and given sentence to pay $100 fine and costs and not more than five years nor less than two years in the penitentiary.

Sheriff Lowell will have both men taken to the penitentiary today in order to make room at the jail as last night the jail population totaled 39 odd, every bunk in the house being full.

PUBLIC SERVICE HEARING TODAY

Judge John W. Reed conducted a Public Service Commission hearing in the Arbitration room of the Court House this morning. The complainant heard was that of the Supervisors of Sandy township against the DuBois United Traction Company.

The Sandy township people are seeking to force the street railway people to move their tracks from the centre to the side of the road or street they traverse in the township in order that the road may be properly improved. In the event that the track is not moved then the people of Sandy ask that the trolley company be made to pave between the rails.

Considerable testimony was taken and a decision will be made after this testimony has been reviewed by the Public Service Commission.

Mrs. Rafferty of Grampian spent Tuesday in Clearfield with friends.

Rosengrants, of the Board of Epworth League, the District Superintendent E. C. Keboch. Local workers will also participate in some of the discussions.

During the afternoon session, the speakers will present the general scope of their work, and the rest of the time will be devoted to conferences. The purpose is to talk to all the workers at close range and assist them in developing model Sunday Schools and Junior Leagues in their local churches.

There will be no registration fee. An offering will be received. No entertainment for the delegates will be provided.

THE ROVER

By George Randolph Chesler

HURDY GURDY FINANCE

"Won't be in the road at all, will I, Mr. Ames?" pleaded Matzie. He laughed at her. Her childish ingenuousness was refreshing.

"Not a particle," he gaily assured her. "How would you like to run the merry-go-round, all by yourself?"

"O-o-o-h," and her voice died away in a delightful gasp.

"We'll start the engine for you," promised Ames, and John Wilks ran to make himself useful.

"I'm afraid Matzie's spoiled, Mr. Ames," boasted her father, viewing her fondly, as she dashed over to the absurd 'little engine.' "How's the lake coming on?"

"Splendidly," answered Ames, leading the way over past the remains of the one-time switch-back. "The bridges for the canal are almost ready to set up, and I think that, by another week, we shall be able to turn the water on."

Houston, with a growing pride in the transformation they were effecting, walked all around the grounds and smiled, with the return of child hood, as he inspected the gaudy "trains" which rose on every hand.

"I saw the chief of police last night," he chuckled. "I won him over, at last."

They were passing the merry-go-round, when Houston reported this interesting fact. The little engine was hissing, and its shrill whistle was piping, while Matzie Houston stood proudly at the lever. The merry-go-round was whirling at top speed, and Joe Wilks sat aside the horse with the green tail.

"Oh, Mr. Ames! Oh, daddy!" cried Matzie, in her limpid voice, and stopped the engine with a jerk. "No, Joe; you mustn't climb down yet. Mr. Ames and daddy, pick out your horses. Take the outside ones where I can see you, and don't sit close together."

"Mr. Ames is busy," protested her father.

"Oh, no he isn't; are you, Mr. Ames?" and her eyes had the softness of a summer evening sky.

"I've been wanting to ride that pink striped horse ever since I've been here," solemnly declared Ames, rather shocked with himself, and swung his long legs astride the wooden beast in question. "Come on, Houston! Take that intelligent mule with the black legs."

"Teet! Teet! Teet!" shrilled the screechy little whistle, and they were off, tumbling slowly and smoothly over at furious speed, their stopping abruptly, and looking onward again until John Ames, who had frequently crossed in stormy weather, recognized a certain familiar mountain in his mouth, and felt that he began to look green.

"Oh, I've had a lovely time!" announced Matzie, in raptures. "I'm coming out often, may I?" and she took her round, blue eyes with her.

Chapter V.

There came another day. For the first time in a week, Marie Houston, who had been general nuisance and obstruction did not come. John Ames, superintending the construction of absurdly childish things to the amusement of his own mind, missed the youngster seriously. She had been on every dangerous scaffolding in the park; she had directed Joe Wilks and her father and had through every uncomfortable experience which an active and ingenious mind could devise; she had brought back to John Ames the spirit of childhood itself, and now, that the day were on, and she did not come, he found himself more lonely than he could have imagined.

"Where's Matzie?" complained Tee Wilks, watching carpenter nail on the eye of a granite column. "The place looks like a rampy day without her."

"Yes, don't it?" agreed John. "She's a most charming child."

"Child?" objected Tee. "She's a child? She was introduced into society last winter. She'll probably be married this year."

"That was true! She was eighteen! She was, after all, a woman! John Ames went about his work with a smile. They were painting green awnings, and yellow umbrellas, and red devices all around the park, but John Ames saw nothing but blue!

"Hello John!" called a soft little voice.

"Hello, John!" called a soft little voice.

"Hello, John!" called a soft little voice.

"Hello, John!" called a soft little voice.

SOLDIERS' BONUS IS NOW UP TO HARDING

Washington, D. C., May 4.—The soldier bonus bill was again put up to President Harding today. Republican on the finance committee authorized Senator McCumber to submit the committee's latest draft of the bill to the President in the hope of receiving a decision as to whether he will veto the "payked" measure. Senator McCumber will see the President as soon as possible.

MRS. ELIZA WISE

Mrs. Eliza Wise died at the DuBois Hospital on Wednesday, April 28th at the age of seventy-six years. She had suffered a paralytic stroke about two weeks ago and being at an advanced age, grew steadily worse until the end came at the above stated time. Mrs. Wise was born in the city of Berlin, Germany, and came to America with her parents when a small child. Her early married life was spent in Reed City, Michigan, but for the past twenty years had resided in DuBois, Pa.

She was the mother of twelve children, three of whom are living: viz: Lewis E. of Clearfield, John G. of Kaufmans and Bertha M. Moore at home.

She is also survived by sixteen grandchildren. Funeral services were held at the home of the late Mrs. Wise, Friday at 1:30 o'clock, with Rev. W. O. Callahan of the Mt. Zion church officiating. Interment was made in the Rumberger Cemetery, by the side of her eldest daughter, Mrs. Minnie Smith.

The out of town people who attended the funeral were Mrs. Geo. Smith, Mr. Clyde Smith and Mrs. Pearl Tuff of Endeavor, Pa.; John G. Wise of Kaufmans, Mrs. Ray Wise and daughter, Betty, of Clearfield and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis E. Wise and Mr. and Mrs. Leshe J. Wise, also of Clearfield.

BAD STOMACH AND HEART PAINS

Get First Relief In Months From Nerv-Worth

When the stomach is sour and the food ferments it produces a poisonous gas that distends the abdomen and presses against the heart causing severe pains and often dangerous palpitation. We have yet to hear of a single case of indigestion or bowel trouble that was not immediately relieved by use of the famous Nerv-Worth.

A. Jacobs of Chattanooga, Tenn., tells us that he suffered this way for years—could not get a good night's rest but before he had taken his first bottle entirely up he was greatly relieved and a little later became entirely free from the pain of indigestion and stomach trouble. His bowels were perfectly regular and all his sleeplessness and nervousness gone. He could eat whatever he wished without pain or discomfort and felt like a new man. Most druggists sell Nerv-Worth at $1.00 a bottle and all are authorized to give the money back if you do not receive satisfactory encouragement from the first bottle. It is always on sale at the Stewart Drug Store in this city. It is especially fine for delicate women and sickly children as the taste is pleasant and the action mild but very effective.

PEGGY HOPKINS HAS MEN BUFFALOED

Paris, France, May 3.—Jacques Bretmon, most famous of Parisian beauty experts, today gave his version of the tremendous power over men wielded by Peggy Hopkins Joyce.

He said "Peggy's attractions are physical. Her admirers are emboldened, knowing that they are playing with fire, each trying to outdo his predecessor to win her love. I do not find Peggy classically beautiful, at least not according to the standards of Venus de Milo. She was ill-proportioned as I viewed her."

Paris, France, May 2.—Peggy Hopkins Joyce today accidentally took an over dose of a sleeping lotion and was ill at the Hotel Claridge, according to her maid.

DOCTOR ORDERED WOMAN OBEYED

Took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and is Now Well

Chicago, Illinois.—"You surely gave women one good medicine when you put Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound on the market. After I had my baby, I was all run down and so nervous I kept me from gaining. My doctor did everything he could to build me up, but he ordered me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with his medicine and I am now a new woman. I have had three children and they are all Lydia E. Pinkham babies. I have recommended your medicine to several friends and they speak highly of it. You are certainly doing good work in this world."

—Mrs. ADRIAN TOMASZEK, 10557 Wabash Ave., Chicago, Illinois.

There is nothing very strange about the doctor directing Mrs. Tomashek to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. There are many physicians who do recommend it and highly appreciate its value.

Women who are nervous, run down, and suffering from women's ailments should give this well-known root and herb medicine a trial. Mrs. Tomashek's experience should guide you towards health.

STATE MILITIA TO FIGHT FOREST FIRE

Wilkesbarre, Pa., May 3.—Forest fires in this region have become so menacing that the State Forestry Department today ordered 200 men from Wilkesbarre, Pittston and Nanticoke batteries of the 109th Field Artillery to report to Tobyhanna to aid in fighting a fire that has been raging there since Sunday. The fire which is the most serious in twenty years has already destroyed twenty square miles of timber land. It is burning towards the towns of New-land and Crisco.

DAMAGE DONE BY FLOODS MOUNTS INTO MILLIONS

Natchez, Miss., May 3.—Property damage of more than $12,000,000, 50,000 persons homeless and nearly 6,000 square miles of fertile land inundated is the toll thus far taken by the flood waters of the raging Mississippi and its tributaries, according to figures compiled here today by N. R. Cotton, Levee Commissioner.

NEW MEMBERS GIVEN FINE RECEPTION

The annual reception to new members which was held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday evening was the most successful social gathering in the recent history of that progressive congregation.

The new members taken into the church during the past twelve months numbered fifty-four. Class No. 4 acted as a Reception Committee while all the officers of the church with their wives were in the receiving line. Each new member as he or she entered, was presented with a carnation which was worn as a distinguishing badge during the evening.

The reception was held in the main church after which the assemblage gathered in the chapel where a highly pleasing program was given, which included a solo by Miss Margery Betts, "The Rosary," duet by Mrs. Clara Howard Brown and Miss Jean Harris; Violin solo by Miss Gene Mitchell and readings by Miss Ethel Trostle.

The Sunday School orchestra furnished the music for the occasion and dainty refreshments were served as an end to a perfect day.

STOMACH UPSET?

Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach trouble.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Take one or two at bedtime for quick relief. Eat what you like. 15c and 30c

CURWENSVILLE

In a contribution from "Special" on Monday evening reference was made to the "Go to Sunday School" movement. In reference to this article your correspondent received the following letter which we publish by permission.

May 2, 1922, Curwensville, Pa.
Mrs. J. L. Curtin,
My dear Mrs. Curtin:
In the Curwensville letter to the Progress of yesterday an error occurs that may tend to create misunderstanding of the Go-to-Sunday School Movement that has been launched by this Association for the month of May. It is an interdenominational enterprise in which all the evangelical Sunday Schools are requested to co-operate. There are 226 protestant Sunday Schools in the county, representing at least 23 different denominations. The executive committee which is back of this movement consists of 28 persons, drawn from the different denominational schools by elections in district and county conventions. To permit the impressions to prevail that the Go-to-Sunday School Movement is sponsored only by the Methodists is detrimental to its success and I trust that adequate correction of the item referred to will be made.

Very sincerely

S. C. WATTS

It has been the policy of the Progress to correct errors whenever possible, and following this policy we make this correction as requested. We are very sorry for an misapprehension but disclaim any responsibility for items labeled "Special." How ever we will be glad to correct if possible any mistakes which may occur through misinformation.

Furthermore, we most heartily endorse the movement, realizing that from the Sunday School of today must come the church of tomorrow and if we fail in its support, the church of the future must go by default.

JAVA DANCER IN FOLLIES

Dancing as it is done in far-off Java is shown by Japonette the feature dancer with "The Greenwich Village Follies" which will be seen at the Driggs Theatre Monday night. The costume worn by Miss Japonette in the Java numbers an exact replica of the one worn by the Japanese palace dancers. No less person than Minister Cramer from the Netherlands to the United States and a former Governor of Java has declared the dance letter perfect, after seeing Miss Japonette render it in New York last winter.

A pleasure trip to the Orient brought her to Java where she saw the Palace Dance on Broadway for that it would go well on the American stage.

That it has "gone over" is shown by the fact that she has been doing the Palace Dance on Broadway for four seasons and this is the first time in that number of years that she has left the Rialto. Miss Japonette also danced the Tong Sarg Marionette number.

Miss Japonette looks all the world like a marionette. Even the lifelike strings that give life to the original marionette are found on Japonette and as she dances from one side of the stage to the other the dancette travel with her. It is a most realistic dance, so realistic in fact, that if the program did not say that Japonette was a dancer, one would actually believe that Tony Sarg himself was sitting up in the flies operating the strings.

Putting Asunder.
The late Lord Halsbury was on one occasion addressing a gathering of legal conferees. The subject was "Matrimonial Law," and much laughter resulted when he reminded his hearers that Sydney Smith once wrote that "Frequently it is that those persons whom God hath joined together in matrimony, ill-cooked joints and badly boiled potatoes have put asunder."

The Gentle Hunter.
"Personally, you know, I am very fond of hunting. But, then, you see, I belong to the society for the protection of animals. However, I found a way out of my difficulty. Whenever I go hunting I use blank cartridges."—La Balomette.

Turks Strangle Criminals.
In Turkey strangling and sewing a criminal up in a bag and throwing him into the sea are common modes of punishment.

George and John Trumble, representative Morris township citizens, were Clearfield visitors last evening. Mrs. L. C. Meise, of South Fourth street, is attending the State P. O. of A. convention at Pottsville, as the representative of Clearfield lodge.

"APPEARANCES"

Just starting out in their married life, they wanted to make an impression. Wanted their friends to think they were getting on. Tried to build their happiness on sand.

And then when the crash brought jealousy, hate, despair—

Come and see them rebuild their love on the truth!

COKE OUTPUT IS HOLDING ITS OWN

Connellsville, Pa., May 4.—Altho' the walk-out caused a 64% decrease in production, at the close of the fourth week of the campaign to tie up the region 4863 tons remained in blast, or 327 more than at the close of April, 1921. Production for the month of April was 54,230 tons, or 5,520 tons greater than a year ago.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES

Word was received in Clearfield Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. Luther Passmore that their daughter-in-law Mrs. Nora Davis Passmore, wife of Dewey Passmore, of No. 50 Denison ave., New London, Conn., died at that place on April 28, 1922 and was buried May 1st at 8:30 a. m. Requiem high mass being celebrated at St. Josephs church at 9 a. m. She leaves beside her husband and daughter, her parents and one brother and one sister.

Charles Hoover of New York City is visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Hoover of Spruce Street.

Shabby Leather Chairs Brightened. When leather chairs begin to look shabby try this remedy. Wipe all dirt and dust from the chairs and then rub with a cloth that has been dipped into white of egg, well beaten. Rub well with soft clean cloths when dry and the leather will look like new.

Really Happy Man.

I look on that man as happy who, when there is a question of success, looks into his work for a reply, not into the market, not into opinion, not into patronage.—Emerson.

HEAL SKIN DISEASES

Apply Zemo. Clean. Penetrating. Antiseptic Liquid.

It is unnecessary for you to suffer with Eczema, Blisters, Ringworm, Rashes and similar skin troubles. Zemo obtained at any drug store for 35c, or $1.00 for extra large bottle, and promptly applied will usually give instant relief from itching torture. It cleanses and soothes the skin and heals quickly and effectively most skin diseases.

Zemo is a wonderful, penetrating, disappearing liquid and is soothing to the most delicate skin. Get it today and save all further distress.

IS YOUR LIFE VALUED HIGH ENOUGH?

You probably carry life insurance to protect your loved ones but, frankly, do you carry enough to meet today's conditions?

When you took out that two or three thousand dollar policy living was cheaper, your family was not living on the plane it is today—things were different. But how about the future? You don't want them to go back to a lower plane if you should be taken so it's up to you to see that they are properly provided for.

Drop in, or better yet, let me drop round to your home some evening and explain the policies that the companies I represent have for sale.

Biggest April-- Biggest Single Day-- Lowest Prices--

In Franklin History

During April, 1922, more cars were sold by the Franklin Automobile Company than in any previous April in its 20-year history.

Following close upon this record, a new high mark for a single day's business was established Monday, May 1, when more new cars were put in the hands of owners by Franklin dealers throughout the country than during any previous one day. This is three times our previous record.

Franklin prices today are at the lowest level they have touched in 16 years, with the exception of a 4-month period in 1916.
